Avelo Airlines Celebrates Flying More Than 50,000 Customers at Houston Hobby Airport

HOUSTON, April 15, 2026 — Avelo Airlines today celebrates flying more than 50,000 Customers on over 400 flights at Houston’s William P. Hobby International Airport (HOU). This milestone is a validation of the industry-leading affordability, reliability and convenience Avelo has introduced to Houston-area travelers since taking flight at HOU in June 2024.

Avelo Airlines Head of Network and Revenue Trevor Yealy said, “The 50,000-Customer milestone we achieved exemplifies the great amount of travel Avelo is inspiring from Houston to Connecticut. Hobby’s unmatched convenience in Houston, combined with Avelo’s convenient secondary-airport destination pairings, makes travel easier, smoother and more affordable than ever. We are grateful to every Avelo Customer who has chosen Avelo. This milestone and the many more to come wouldn’t be possible without the professionalism and teamwork of Avelo’s exceptional Crewmembers and their commitment to our Customers.”

Avelo exclusively serves Southern Connecticut’s most convenient airport – Tweed-New Haven (HVN) from Houston Hobby.

Houston’s Most Reliable Way to Travel

Avelo has also achieved industry-leading reliability in Houston. When excluding weather-related cancellations outside Avelo’s control, the airline achieved a 98.5% completion rate, canceling less than 1.5% of flights at HOU.
